Comic Construction!

Saturday, January 20, 2018 • 2:00 PM
Rotary Room, Main Library

Are you obsessed with comic books and graphic novels? Do you want to learn how to make your own?

Be inspired to construct your own comic book during this fun and interactive presentation from Free Lunch Studios! Learn drawing and storytelling techniques to build your own comic, and invent your own unique character. For children in grades K-5.

Registration is recommended and opens Tuesday, January 2. Register in-person, online or by calling the library.

Free Lunch Comics is an independent comic publisher that was created in 1997. Its first product was a mini comic called BIGGER that ran for 15 issues. The first 7 minis were collected into a 48 page full size comic and distributed internationally. The production studio is located in Tarriffville, CT where they host classes, workshops, and special events.

All programs are free and open to the public. For more information: fairfieldpubliclibrary.org, or call 203-256-3161.
