Capoeira Storytime and Demo

Saturday, February 10 • 2:00 PM

Platt Walsh Room, Fairfield Woods Branch Library

Join author Daphnie Bruno, PhD for a musical storytime straight from Brazil! She will be reading her book I Love My Baby Berimbau and performing musical and movement demonstrations of the Afro-Brazilian martial arts.

The Afro-Brazilian martial arts and game called Capoeira is played in nearly every country in the world. Many who have played the game have described it as alluring, powerful, and even spiritual. The book describes a little girls' love for the Berimbau, a very special instrument played in Capoeira. For children 4-8 years old.

Registration is required and opens Tuesday, January 2. Register in-person, online or by calling the library.
