

Memorial Hall

Commemorating the Settlers and Citizens at Fairfield:

North, or Fireplace Wall

Over mantle, map of town, which extended from Norwalk line east to Stratford, including Redding...this shows village and Post road, Long Lots, Mile Common, 1-2 mile Common. 1639.

Turn to opposite end of room, see

Center panel map of compact portion of town 13 years later, with homes of early settlers. 1652.

Panels at left contain names of Judges, Deputies to General Court, Colonial Lieut. Governors

Panels at right contain Deputies to General Court, Assistants and Physicians

Fireplace Wall again

On left of map those who joined Ludlow in 1639 and Ministers of Prime Ancient Society.

On right of map planters from Concord, and those taking part in Indian Wars.

West Wall

Panels from left to right

Revolutionary Officers.
Lexington Alarm Co.
Lieutenants.

Those taking part in French and Indian War.
Map of Quebec.

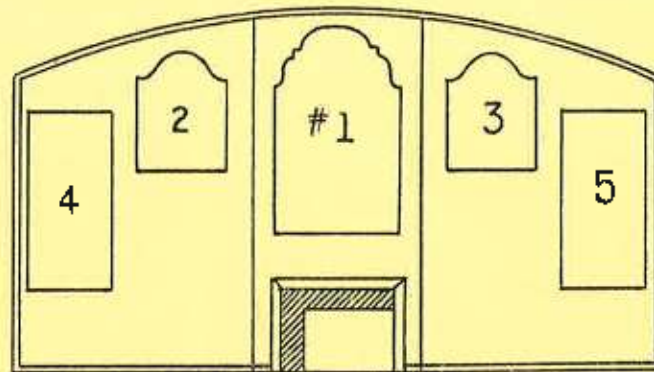

East Wall

Panels from left to right

Port Royal.
Map of City of Louisburg.

Civil War Officers.
World War--Those who died
Civil War--
Those who died

Panel 2 and 3
 First comers
 at left--who joined Ludlow
 in 1639.
 At right--Planters
 from Concord.

Panel 4 and 5
 At left
 Ministers of the Prime Ancient Society.
 At right
 Indian Wars.

North, or Fireplace Wall

◆

Memorial Hall

to commemorate
the Worthies of Fairfield
 Civil and Military

West Wall

No. 1 Map of old town which extended from Norwalk line east to Stratford,
 including Redding Village
 and Post road, Long Lots,
 Mile Common, 1-2 Mile
 Common.

East Wall

- 11. Revolutionary Officers.
- 12. Revolutionary Lexington Alarm Co.
- 13. Revolutionary Lieutenants.
- 14. French and Indian War. Map of Quebec.

- 15. Port Royal and map of city of Louisburg.
- 16. Civil War Officers.
- 17. World War, those who died.
- 18. Civil War, those who died.

South wall, opposite fireplace

No. 6 Map showing compact part of town 13 years later.

- Panel 7. Judges
- Panel 8. Assistants
- Panel 9 and 10. Deputies to General Court
- Panel 11. Colonial Lieut. Governors
- Panel 12. Physicians