

Fairfield Educators, GREAT NEWS!

You can get your very own
Fairfield Public Library Educator Card
to use for your classroom!

Connect, learn and transform!

A FPL Educator Card opens
a world of possibilities for your classroom.

Who can get a FPL Educator Card?

Teachers, paraprofessionals and administrators currently employed in a Fairfield public or private school are eligible to apply for a FPL Educator Card.

How do I apply?

Apply for an FPL Educator Card in person at the Fairfield Public Library or at the Fairfield Woods Branch Library during operating hours. Please be prepared to show your government photo ID as well as one of the following:

- ▶ Your current school-issued or program-issued photo ID with the current school year
- ▶ A current paystub, or other documentation, that validates you are teaching in the current year
- ▶ A current letter on the school's or program's letterhead confirming employment

What can I borrow with a FPL Educator Card?

FPL Educator cards can borrow all circulating library materials and have access to digital resources, such as Kanopy, for the sole purpose of educating the students of Fairfield.

Apply today at the checkout desk! It's FREE and easy!